KENNY (G) STARRING: Shane Jacobson, Eve Von Bibra DIRECTOR: Clayton Jacobson GENRE: Comedy OPENS: Today

The “mockumentary” style of filmmaking appears to be gaining momentum.

Into this category comes Kenny, an Australian movie that joins the best of them. It focuses on one, Kenny Smyth (Shane Jacobson), and his job. To be blunt, Kenny is a dunny man – a bloke who works “in the field” for a company called

Splashdown that looks after those big porta-loo contraptions

The film accompanies Kenny and his team from one big event to another. There is an underplayed poignancy, too, in the way Kenny comes across as an underdog who takes any kicks he gets without a comeback ... except for a single moment of revenge.
